

Chemical world - 1/1

Interprété par Blur.

the pay-me girl has had enough of the bleeps so she takes a bus into the country although she got herself rosy cheeks she didn't leave enough money to pay the rent the lanlord says that she's out in a week what a shame she was just getting comfy now she's eating chocolate to induce sleep in a chemical world it's very, very, very cheap

(chorus)

and i don't know about you they've been putting the holes in, yes yes it's been a hell of a do
they've been putting the holes in, yes yes

peeping thomas has a very nice view across the street at the exhibitionist these townies they never speak to you just stick together so they never get lonely feeling lead, feeling quite light-headed had to sit down and have some sugary tea in chemical world, in a chemical world it's very, very, very, cheap.
