(I don't Know)

I don't know why

I'm waiting for loving

And I don't know why

Your kiss makes me burn

Every time I see you

I'm longing

For you to just stop

Listen and learn

'Cause I don't know why

You take my love for granted

And I don't know why I still feel the way I do

But baby, you know

That there's more to love

Than this feeling

I can put my pride aside

One time iust for you. you

You, you, oh yeah
