

Kiss your past goodbye - 1/2

Interprété par Aerosmith.

Finders keepers losers weep
Down on 42nd Street
Oh, bare-foot children cryin' my-oh-my
I watched you on the avenue
While other men were having you
I think that you should let your caged bird fly

And kiss your past good-bye
Kiss your past good-bye
Kiss your past good-bye, yeah
Kiss your past good-bye

I've been so lost I must confess
I've had my share of loneliness
But yeah it's hard to keep a good man down
The loves you lost were all in vain
The past lives on inside your brain
I don't think you need those memories
Hangin' 'round, yeah

Good-bye
Kiss your past good-bye
You've gotta let it fly
Kiss your past good-bye, yeah
Yeah, yeah

Kiss your past good-bye
Oooh, kiss your past good-bye

And if that bird don't fly away
There's just one thing I got to say

It's later than a deuce a ticks
Your broken heart, it needs a fix
You're feedin' off a high that would not last
And people they don't seem to care
And sorry just don't cut it, yeah
It seems to me you're gettin' nowhere fast

So... Kiss... your... past

Or kiss your ass good-bye
Kiss your past good-bye
There's no more tears to cry, yeah
So kiss your past good-bye
Kiss your past good-bye
Or kiss your ass good-bye, yeah

Kiss your past goodbye - 2/2

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
