Requiem

(Lyrics: Corey of Slipknot, Mikey Doling, and John Fahnestock)

We were ready for anything

Everyone knows some pain

I see the loss every time someone says your name

When you know someone who shines hard

A soul of the age who doesn't care who the fuck you are

You had a friend, a brother who was everything

But he had to go away....that was yesterday

I've lost a lot of people in my time

The good, the bad, the unreal, and the ones who shine

So I know you all understand when I say that until they left

We were ready for anything...but this

You are not gone

We keep you here inside us

You are not gone -

We know you're still beside us

You are not gone -

We have this light you gave to us

Now it's time to, lay to rest our friend

And through these songs

His memory will never fucking end

We will see that

Through this loss we'll shed some light on you

Until the day you left us

We were ready for anything...but this

Why'd you have to go? We never had a chance

I can't believe it so I won't admit it

Life ain't shit without you in it

Everybody says the light that shines the brightest burns out fast

But what they never say is all the light they gives us lasts

We hold the memories and cherish everyday we had

But we would give it up in a second just to have you

Back!!
