Take it back

(Lyrics: Jonathan of KoRn and Nathan Cox)

It's so fucked I am here doing this

It's bullshit, things don't end like this

I'm calling

Staring into this place

Where I cease to exist

Wondering, why do things always end up like this

Fly

Take to the sky another dream of empty

Lies

Of promises denied by a forgiving

God

Who eats his young you're nothing you fucking

Fraud

My belief was betrayed I lost my faith in you

Try

To understand the sorrow and the

Why

Of a light that should still be burning

Bright

The angel in flight with a dog by his

Side

When you took him away I lost my faith in even you!!

As I feel emptiness growing in my heart

I can't help but scream into hating you

I bet you think it's funny

You give us a gift and then you take it back
