Love comes at the speed of light Love comes at the speed of light Love comes in a strange disguise Love comes

Open the door and let the light pour over Open the door don't you keep me out Open the door and let the light pour over Hear me shout OPen the door and let the light pour over OPen the door don't you keep me out Open the door and let the light pour over

Love comes at the speed of light Love comes

It's a pure as silver It's as pure as gold It's a rushing river Let it run all over me It's as pure as silver It's as pure as gold Let it run all over me

Love comes Love comes at the speed of light Love comes at the speed of light
