

When You Left Was There Anything Left - 1/1

Interprété par Britney Spears.

When you left was anything left
Memories are back, memories come back.

Then I try, I try not to cry
What can I do? Where are you? Now I'm alone.

When I awake, all I see is you
How can I forget? How can I forget?

I still love you, thought you lov' me too
I cannot believe why did you leave?

Where are you? I need you, oh can you hear me now?
I love you

I would have done, have done anything
Anything for you, anything for you.

When we danced there was nobody else
All disappeared, all disappeared, ... There was only you

Time goes on, all suspicions have gone
Open your eyes. Open your eyes.

Things have changed, I have stored away
away for you, away for you.

Where are you? I need you, oh can you, oh can you hear me now?
I love you

You can be sure I will be here for you.
What am I to you? What am I to you?

I look at myself in my mirror, all I see
A broken heart, a broken heart, Please come back.

This is the message I'm sending out to you
Have you forgotten? Have you forgotten?

What are you, are you going to do
Just tell me do you lov' me?

Where are you? I need you, oh can you hear me now?
I love you.
Where are you? I need you, oh can you hear me now?
I LOVE YOU....
