SEE THRU

What is your fucking problem???

You want to know what my problem is??

Alone

I walk beside myself

Alone

you put me on your shelf

Alone

With my insanity

Alone

no one to blame but me

But if you had told me when I was much younger

That life has a way of pulling you right under

I wouldn't be standing here preaching my hate

I stand at the edge staring into my fate

I see thru you

What makes you think that you are god?

I see thru u

Pick up the pieces as I fall apart

I see thru you

Why must you fuck with me this way?

I see thru you

Wither away with me

Betrayed

you left me here for dead

Betrayed

by the voices in my head

Betrayed

left me out in the rain

Betrayed

nothing left but pain

I'm sick of the answers

You have to my questions

Your cannibal instincts and false dedications

You leave me here cold

nothing left but my shell

To die while I'm living and burn in my hell

I see thru you

What makes you think that you are god?

I see thru u

Pick up the pieces as I fall apart

I see thru you

Why must you fuck with me this way?

I see thru you

I'll pick you apart little by little

See Thru - 2/2

Till nothing is left but the look on your face
Once inside out I can get what's inside
Beneath your facade I can see your disgrace
The walls that you build up will crumble around you
The pain you will feel as you wither away
The sun though it comes up will warm you no longer
Your strongest emotions I'll make you betray
I see thru you
What makes you think that you are god?
I see thru u
Pick up the pieces as I fall apart
I see thru you
Why must you fuck with me this way?
I see thru you
I'll pick you apart little by little
Till nothing is left but the look on your face
Once inside out I can get what's inside
Beneath your facade I can see your disgrace
