

Daylight - 1/1

If you can believe you're turning all the world that broke your mind
Then i can do something for you even though you're lost in time

Yu won't have to be my heaven. i won't have to be your friend
Dlight, daylight comes every time it's calling
Dylight, daylight it goes away again now

Dn't let go don't let go of your heart
Dn't let go don't let go of your heart

Fel like your skin is burning into many drops of rain
Bt it's doing nothing to me drowning in a sea of pain

Yu won't have to be my heaven i won't have to be your friend
O daylight, daylight comes everytime it's calling
Dylight, daylight it goes away again now

Dn't let go don't let go of your heart
Dn't let go don't you know who you are
Dn't let go don't let go of your heart
Don't let go don't let go of your heart
