

Until I'm Fine - 1/1

Interprété par Ks Choice.

cracked this morning worst and week tears roll down from inside my cheek strange timing opportunity knocks sun comes up paradox

take the hope out of this whine take a rope and tie these thoughts of mine down until i'm fine

don't ask me if i'm hungry i'm not sick something's tearing me apart brick by brick and i feel guilty as i sigh i'm feeling guilty why do i

take your hands out of mine to take a rope and tie these thoughts of mine down

cracked this morning worst and sad or have i already told you that forget my plans to grow a vine and you undress to burn these thoughts of mine
