

Trapeze - 1/1

Interprété par Our Lady Peace.

can't believe she fell the silence was unnerving the crowd began to yell was the thought of her returning so you never knew him well but you know what you've been seeing these images of guilt and the concrete in her hair so far these lions still need taming it's very sad very sad no no she fell very far very far no no for this cannonball, this cannonball as desperate as you felt were you strong enough to leave him oh you need to know him well he's an angry acrobat so you struggle with the will with the will that you've been seeing these images of guilt and the concrete in her hair so far these lions still need taming it's very sad very sad no no she fell very far very far for this cannonball, this cannonball and he walked away from can't believe she fell well it happened in a turning struggle with the will but the thought of this the thought of this