

It's Hard Letting You Go - 1/1

Interprété par Bon Jovi.

It ain't no fun lying down to sleep
And there ain't secrets left for me to keep
I wish to stars up in the sky would all just call in sick
And the clouds would take the moon out on some one-way trip

I drove all night down streets that wouldn't bend
But somehow they drove me back here once again
To the place I lost at love, and the place I lost my soul
I wish I'd just burn down this place that we called home
It would all have been so easy if you'd only made me cry
And told me how you leaving me to some organ grinder's lullaby

But it's hard, so hard
It's tearing out my heart
It's hard letting you go

Now the sky, it shines a different kind of blue
And the neighbor's dog don't bark like he used to
Well me, these days I just miss you
It's the nights that I go insane
Unless you're coming back,
For me, that's one thing I know that won't change

Cause it's hard, so hard
It's tearing out my heart
Cause it's hard letting you go

Now some tarot card shark said I'll drow you a heart
And we'll find you somebody else new
But I've made my last trip to those carnival lips
When I bet all that I had on you

It's hard, it's hard
It's hard, so hard
It's hard letting you go

It's hard, so hard
It's tearing out my heart
But it's hard letting you go
