

Every Baby Needs A Da-da-daddy - 1/1

Interprété par Marilyn Monroe.

It was cold outside of Tiffany
I was shivering in the storm
I walk in and at the gentlemen
Could I please keep warm

He asked me oh come oh baby doll
Has no coffee slates to go
So I told that kindly gentleman
My care for more.....

Every baby needs a da-da-daddy
To keep her worry free
Every baby needs a da-da-daddy
But where's the one for me

For rich or poor I don't care who
IF he hasn't got a millions and a half of good
Every baby needs a da-da-daddy
Could my da-daddy be you

Every baby needs a da-da-daddy
With silver in his hand
Every baby needs a da-da-daddy
Who has some good to say
Dance we saw she who enjoy
Bringing all this baby little diamond toy oh ho!
Every baby needs a da-da-daddy
Could my dad daddy be you

Every baby needs a da-da-daddy
In case she runs a ground
Every baby needs a da-da-daddy
You keep her place and sound

Yes we feel just like a riding hood
Cause, Honduras mo Hungry in the neighborhood

Oh every baby needs a da-da-daddy
Tonight da daddy be you
Tonight da daddy be you
