SECOND CHANCES

Sometimes we get second chances And sometimes we never make it past the first It really makes you wonder why somethings happen when they do It really makes me wonder why it wasn't me instead of you

And when you say It doesn't matter well it does And all it takes Is a mistake to eat your words Just one more time I think I'll drive on home tonight

Sometimes we never see the warning And the voice in your head tells you not to go It really makes me wonder why somethings happen when they do It really makes me wonder why it wasn't me instead of you

And when you say It doesn't matter well it does And all it takes Is a mistake to eat your words Just one more time I think I'll drive on home tonight

And when you look its gone its too late to turn around And it's another day facing yourself and the things that you've done

And when you say It doesn't matter well it does And all it takes Is a mistake to eat your words Just one more time I think I'll drive on home tonight
