

Back to wonderland - 1/1

Interprété par Paul Young.

For all your worried weaknesses, all will be revealed

For all your troubled sweetnesses, your troubles will be healed

Close your eyes, close your eyes

Let me rise, let me rise

I see you in a dress of blue, a question in your hand

I see you in your attitude of sorrow and demand, oh

Close your eyes, close your eyes

Let me take you back to wonderland

I will take you back to wonderland

Are your eyes so tired of searching, that they can't see love

Is your heart so full of locks and keys that it can't open up?

Through all the things that have to be, we often have to cry

Beneath the weight of gravity, we stumble then we fly

Hold my hand, hold my hand

Let me take you back to wonderland

I will take you back to wonderland

Let me take you back to wonderland

I will take you back to wonderland
