the words you say ill never listen to cause if i did id be just like you but your my enemy and soon your gonna see you gotta be yourself to be happy cause your not

fucked up visions in my head im a fucked up kid is what they said but atleast i know all the things that i want and its all the things ive got cause your so quick to point the finger you act like your shit dont linger it feels good when you see someone else in a rut it gives you confidence it makes you happy but your not

but atleast i know all the things that i want

you act as if youve seen my way but i know that you wont leave today cause change is what you fear the most and the end is getting close and the end it getting close
and the end is getting close...

but atleast i know all the things that i want its all the things ive got
