what went on last night wasnt just another stupid fight will we be again or will we both forget this in the end

its so hard to do
why cant i forget you and everything you do
its so hard to do

consider me your friend until you do that stupid shit again i believed all you told when you left me hangin out so cold

its so hard to do
why cant i forget you and everything you do
its so hard to do

its so hard to do
why cant i forget you and everything you do
its so hard to do

why cant i forget you and everything you do
its so hard to do
