

Moving on - 1/1

Interprété par Six Pence None The Richer.

It has gotten to my head.
Permeates the path I tread.
But I tread, I'm moving on in a new and happy song.
I can sing about the night, how my tunnel without light led me to the other side where the sky is blue.
It's all I can do to not let them ruin me.
I will not let them ruin me.
I will not let them ruin me again.

There is fire inside the tree.
Flames of knowing kissing me.
I have waited long to see a sign from you.
It's all I can do to not let them ruin me.
I will not let them ruin me.
I will not let them ruin me again.
