

Ordinary Morning - 1/1

Interprété par Sheryl Crow.

I left a man
Asleep in the nude
My name in my pocket
With lipstick and rouge

Everything I ever wanted, what a lovely pie you've baked, is anybody listening?
Don't painted birds ever fly away

It's just an ordinary morning
It's just an ordinary day
And I'm just an ordinary woman
Slipping away

The walls have been talking
About me again
I'm good for a joke but when I awoke
The dream didn't end

Now everytime I turn around I'm only sleeping, John, is anybody out there?
Don't the wounded birds still sing

It's just an ordinary morning
It's just an ordinary day
Slipping away
