

Fall From Grace - 1/2

Interprété par Sheryl Crow.

I choose to be his confidant
And to keep him from the fire
I choose to be quietly discreet
If that is his desire
I touch with gossamer wings
To be quiet around you
There is so much going on
You could easily
Wake up with a stranger

It's not something that you plan
One night in a world of pain
And you finally understand
Not all the king's horses, not all the king's men
Could put it back together

You say you wouldn't do this for very long
The applause from it all is so defining
Well it bounces off the wall at you
When the miracle is happening
High priestess... she's the keeper of the peace in this
Twice as much, intensified
What people will do
To get... this... high

It's not something that you plan
One night in a world of pain
And you finally understand
Not all the king's horses, not all the king's men
Could put it back together

And now alone in my room
As it all begins again
Was I so wrong
Why am I always so intense
In this same place I sit
The same place as before
Well I came all the way here
Just to watch you walk out that door

I didn't ask you when you shook your head
I always accepted what you said
As the truth and the truth only
Well it's not enough that you depend on me
And it's not enough that you say you love me
It's not enough to just save face
Because sometimes

You just fall from grace

Sometimes

You just fall from grace

Maybe I am calmer now

Maybe things are fine

Maybe I made the whole thing up

Maybe it isn't a lie

Maybe the reason I say these things

Is to bring you back alive

Maybe I fought this long and this hard

Just to make sure you survive

Just to make sure you survive
