

Plain parade - 1/1

Interprété par Cardigans.

Plain parade

Well, where is all the profit laid?

Plain parade

Well, maybe we have lost our way

Some are lone

Sickly running from

Something so wrong

And nowhere to belong

Plain parade

Well, when will I be repaid

Plain parade

I might join you on another day

Some are lone

Sickly running from

Something so wrong

And nowhere to belong

All you've given me is sadness

Proof enough to feel I'm loveless

I wish that I could manage better now

And find a place that I can settle

Down
