

Broken Dream - 1/1

Interprété par Anggun.

We promised that we'd share our lives
And nothing could tear us apart
But I feel that something has gone wrong

I must try to find the way
To tell you what I want to say
That I feel that something has gone wrong

'Cause I don't feel the flame again
I don't want to have to pretend
That I'm still in love with you
(bis)

See me
Free me
Let me go

I will not promise you
The things that I can't do
And I can't afford to live in love that's through

Forgive me have sinned
I've made a broken dream
And this has to end, I hope you understand

'Cause I don't feel the flame again
I don't want to have to pretend
That I'm still in love with you

Hear me
See me
Let me go
