

Right Before Your Eyes - 1/1

Interprété par Hoobastank.

When the door shuts, don't worry about me
It's not attention that I want from you
I need you to trust who I'm gonna be
And in everything I'm going to do
Cause I'm not afraid of what I don't know
For understanding is all that I earn
But what is for sure is I'm going to go
I'm going to live and I'm going to learn

And I know there will be mistakes that I will make
But I know none are worse than chances I don't take, take

Right before your eyes, I am changing
Changing
You laugh on the inside, I am changing
Changing

When the door shuts, it shuts finally
A new person that I have become
I'll follow my heart to my destiny
Living in fear and the sorrow is done

There will be no more feeling that I'm all alone
I will surround myself with things that help me grow

Right before your eyes I am changing
Changing
You laugh on the inside, I am changing
Changing

Right before your eyes I am changing
Changing
You laugh on the inside, I am changing
Changing

Right before your eyes I am changing
Changing
You laugh on the inside, I am changing
Changing

Right before your eyes
Right before your eyes
