

Disconnected - 1/1

Interprété par The Goo Goo Dolls.

I don't remember it doesn't ring a bell
And when you call me everything is swell

I tend to forget about the times we had
And now it doesn't matter 'cause I feel so sad
I've been disconnected
Someone pulled the plug
Oh you're so distant
Nothin's come along, yeah.
We've paid the price and now we're both alone
And if you call me you'll find me home
I've found another someone to take your place
Now if you don't mind please get outta of my face
I've been disconnected
Someone pulled the plug
Oh you're so distant
Nothin's come along, yeah.
Cause, I've been disconnected
Someone pulled the plug
Oh you're so distant
Nothin's come along
