

Amigone - 1/2

Interprété par The Goo Goo Dolls.

Every time you point your finger
Three more point right back at you
I'm not saying that it's something wrong with life
Cause that's a sad excuse
And age old game of rat and mouse
Chasing us from house to house
I'm not saying that there's something wrong with you
It's wrong with me as well

Are you alive
Amigone
Is it to late to call and tell you to be strong
Are you alive
Amigone
Was the poison in our love there all along
Amigone

Heavenly intoxication
Love's been marred by medication
Ain't it funny how a life can take a turn
When the end is near

Are you alive
Amigone
Is it too late to call and tell you to be strong
Are you alive
Amigone
Is it too late to face the truth that it was wrong
Amigone

I ain't saying that it's something
I ain,t gonna play along
I ain't wishing for a miracle
That miracle's gone wrong
And you're too strong

Amigone
Is it too late to call and tell you to be strong
Are you alive
Amigone
Was the poison in our love there all along
Are you alive
Amigone
Is it too late to call and tell you to be strong
Are you alive
Amigone
Was the poison in our love there all along
