

My Time Alone - 1/1

"My Time Alone"

Time away.

I've thought this through.

A full ashtray, I'm outside of you.

I've been thinking, "Will she leave me?"

My time alone and you are here waiting for me to break but I am not changing.

I won't listen.

Apart from me, torn from the floor.

Honestly, I can't give you more.

I've been breathing since you left me.

I won't listen to you.

I'm not leaving with you.

Time away.

You've lost all control and I'm in need of this time alone.
