

Take my soul away - 1/1

Interprété par Cranberries.

That was some revealing light
That you shone on me last night
Have you turned away from me
Because you know that I can't see?

But if you leave me in the night,
Well then you're leaving me in spite
And if you leave me in the day
Well then you'll take my soul away

Nothing ever happens to me
Though I still can't see the things that you see.
Was anybody there?
Does anybody care?

No, nobody to show me the way
No, nobody to tell me to stay
No, nobody was there
No, nobody does care

That was some revealing light
That you shone on me last night
Have you turned away from me?
Because you know that I can't see

And if you leave me in the night
Well then you're leaving me in spite
And if you leave me in the day
Well then you'll take my soul away

If you leave me in the night
Well then you're leaving me in spite
And if you leave me in the day
Well then you'll take my soul away.
