Interprété par Moby.

spoken style]

wake up, face the future cause I feel I have to salute you on the things that's goin on, in this world today you can run, but you can't hide you have to find your sense of pride to let you know, that this world, will never decay

It's later than it's ever been, time's up (time's up)
It's later than it's ever been, time's up (time's up)
It's later than it's ever been, time's up, in this world, today brothers and sisters, grab a hold there's a story solid as gold we must try to stay alive we must strive, and never slip away where there's sunshine, there is rain where there is joy there will be pain we must move, m?--? move we must move, and never decay

It's later than it's ever been, time's up (time's up)
It's later than it's ever been, time's up (time's up)
It's later than it's ever been, time's up, in this world, today yo yo my brother my brother let me lay it on the downstroke I want you to know that I will provoke anything that life will bring because within these words I have a antidote the time is comin' for the song that I'm hummin' to let you know it's later than it's ever been your time is up, you sad faced clown now here's da breakdown (da breakdown, da breakdown, da breakdown)

[sung vocals]
It is later, than it's ever been the life you livin', try not to sin it is later, it is later, it is later, than it's ever been keep on movin', and grab a hold the life you livin', must have control we can do it, we can do it, we can do it, if we try

It is later, than it's ever been

Time's up (deep mix) - 2/2
