

Ashes - 1/1

Interprété par Ben Harper.

Ashes to ashes
and dust to dust
that's what has become of our love and trust

Love has no direction cause love has no aim love can leave you
as fast as she came

Meeting is such sweet sorrow cause someday we may have to part hush don't you make a sound you're gonna let me down

Good things come
to those who wait
but good things are gone from those who are late

All that I am
is all I can give
but with or without you my life I must live

you're gonna let me down

Living ain't easy
since you've been gone
no one else can please me or make me feel home

Forgetting ain't easy
you stay on my mind
thoughts of us haunt me can't leave them behind
