

Show me a little shame - 1/1

Interprété par Ben Harper.

You, you've been looking at me
Just a little too long
Now I can never look the same
Blindness and kindness, there's no difference in the two
When I can no longer see the good in you
So won't you show me a little shame
Won't you show me a little shame
Now cos' I'm, I'm a gentleman
Before gentlewomen, so-called ladies
They keep breakin my heart
Show me your house
Show me your home, show me your home
So won't you show me a little shame
Won't you show me a little shame
Won't you show me a little shame
Now, cos' I wake up in the morning
More tired than before I slept
I get to crying and I
Sat up and before I wept
I get through thinking
And the thoughts have left my head
I get through speaking
And I can't remember not a word that I said
You change your mind so many times
I wonder if you ever have mind at all
And I rather be by myself
Than to have your lonesome company
Come to call
So won't you show me a little shame
Won't you show me a little shame
Won't you show me a little shame
