

Why - 1/1

Interprété par Natalie Imbruglia.

The sky has fallen on my yesterday
I watch my moon and blue sun slip away
Everybody's asking questions
Everybody's wanting more
Every time I catch myself, I fall

And it's why you ask me
And it's why i don't know
And i try to pull myself together
I don't want to go home (?)

(Slip Away)

The little girl has lost her way today
The tables turning on the game she plays
Everybody's asking questions
Everybody's wanting more
Every time I catch myself, I fall

And it's why you ask me
And it's why I don't know
And I try to pull myself together
I don't want to go home

Every time I catch myself, I fall

And it's why you ask me
And it's why I don't know
And I try to pull myself together
I don't want to go home

And it's why you ask me
And it's why I don't know
And I try to pull myself together
I don't want to go home

Every time I catch myself, I (slip away) fall
