

What If - 1/2

Interprété par Aaliyah.

What if.. every guy I saw

What if.. sittin down at the bar

What if.. I told him to give me a call

What if.. what if, what if

What if.. every guy in the place

What if.. was all up in my face

What if.. what would you say

What if.. what if, what if

I hate a jealous man, one who doesn't understand That I'm attractive so of course men wanna take my hand And lead me off round the corner maybe to their place But when they speak you get mad, jumpin all up in my face

But on the other hand when women come and speak to you You kiss and hug them like it's something that you let me do You're only jealous cause you know the ish you put me through I might turn right around and do that ish right back to you

What if.. sittin down at the bar

What if.. I told him to give me a call

What if.. what if, what if

What if.. every guy in the place

What if.. was all up in my face

What if.. what would you say

What if.. what if, what if

I hate a lyin dude, one who doesn't know the rules
If you gon cheat burn the receipt from the hotel room
But instead you're up in my face saying you were at friends
But they all call askin me where the hell you been

Why they keep treatin us this way
I guess it's a little game we play
We'll burn you (oh), we'll cut you (oh)
We'll kill you (oh)
We don't have to take it no more

What if.. every guy I saw

What if.. sittin down at the bar

What if.. I told him to give me a call

What if.. what if, what if

What if.. every guy in the place

What if.. was all up in my face

What if.. what would you say

What if.. what if, what if
