

Coming Home Now - 1/1

Interprété par Boyzone.

weeks, days, hours, minutes till i'll be home
da-da-da da da-da da-da da da da-da da-da-da da da-da da-da da da da-da

a kiss on the cheek in the old town park carved your name in the shape of a heart walked together hand in hand i didn't feel the rain and there's a picture girl that hangs inside my mind and there's a letter girl say i'm doing fine

and there's a picture, girl that hangs inside my mind
and there's a letter girl say i'm doing fine

and i'm coming home now it's been so long now gonna get there somehow praying you'll be there coming home now it's been so long now
gonna get there somehow praying you'll be there weeks, days, till i'll be there children on the streets still playing games the smiles on the faces have never changed i hope it's all the same i didn't leave in vain

and there's a picture girl that hangs inside my mind
and there's a letter girl say i'm doing fine
and there's a picture, girl that hangs inside my mind
and there's a letter girl say i'm doing fine

coming home now it's been so long now

dearly close words i really want to see you you're in my heart when overseas i feel you close, and not so far soon we'll be together, and this time it's forever

coming home now it's been so long now

coming home now it's been so long now
gonna get there somehow praying you'll be there
