

Fool - 1/1

Interprété par Roxette.

I was alone
I told my mouth to shut up cos I was talking to myself like I always do when I'm stuck
Well, I was crying
You could be crying too
I was screaming through the window, I keep missing you
And the tears came down from the sky
And the rain feel hard on my eyes

Now you know what I look like, I'm feeling like a fool
I lose on my own, I'm going back to school

And I will pray, Hallelujah, you'll be breaking every rule and come back to stay, I'm feeling like a fool

I really tried so hard to design my life
There's a big black void in my head like it's been cut by a knife
Every time your name comes around this stupidity follows me down

Now you know what I look like, I'm feeling like a fool
I thought I could swim I'm drowning in the pool

And I will pray, Hallelujah, you'll be breaking every rule and consider to stay, I'm feeling like a fool

Please, come back to stay, I'm feeling like a fool
I'm feeling like a fool in my heart
I'm feeling like a fool
