

Secrets that She keeps - 1/1

Interprété par Roxette.

I move all right, I got the wheels going round, making ways in the night.
Yea we're movin'all right, wipin' the rain from the ground and the pale from the sky
but something happens in his heart when the morning comes.
The secrets that she keeps away from me,
the tears on her pillow she don't want me to see,
well every little thing she does is for me but somebody new is breaking us in two.
He's the kind of the love that makes a whirl in your mind, like the tide and the time.
With just a little bit o'soul he fights to find peace of mind in these shattering eyes
but something happens in his heart when the morning comes.
The secrets that she keeps away for me. The love of you and me.
