Interprété par Texas.

CD Southside

I just woke up and I can see it now It's never been this close before Tried to tell myself I didn't care Crying out why am I here There's no point in me hiding And only now I can see

Everyday now Everyday now The blame's gonna fall on me

Something deep inside said move away
Try to leave what's good behind
And I still ask myself
Why I let it go
All these years were wasted time
There's no point in me hiding
And only now I can see

Everyday now Everyday now The blame's gonna fall on me

Everyday now Everyday now The blame's gonna fall on me

Cause I never told you That I could never live without it Now the blame's on me

Everyday now Everyday now The blame's gonna fall on me

Everyday now Everyday now The blame's gonna fall on me

Everyday now Everyday now The blame's gonna fall on me

Cause I never knew the feeling And it changed me and I never knew

Everyday now - 2/2

Cause I never knew the feeling And it changed me and I never knew
