

To love again - 1/2

Interprété par Lara Fabian.

Version anglaise de "Si tu m'aimes

CD Lara Fabian

Every night

Every day

I tell my heart

To forget you and to

Move away

Not to break

Anymore

But oh, no matter

What I say

You're so deep in my mind

There's no way to leave this love behind

It used to be

I believed

I could go on

And find someone to

Rest upon

Anyone, anyone

Soon I found

There was no other

There you are

Framed against the sky

You are my life

And I pray for when

You will be mine

To love again

I see the rain

In the sky

And I see your face

Through every tear that I cry

With every breath

And every sound

I can hear

Another voice and swear that

You're around

And every word is clear

Cause I know

The memory won't let go

Until you're mine

To love again

Who's to say what lives in the past

Who's to say that love won't last

Time's been standing still

Waiting so patiently until

Until that one day when

When I will have you

To love again - 2/2

To love again
And there you are
Framed against the sky
You are my life
And I pray for when
You will be mine
To love again
