CD Living in the present future

Promises made they were lost
Somewhere beside you Waiting around can leave some Feeling like I do
Promises made and we stayed Dreaming of leaving We will find good days for us
The sun will shine brightly
Live our life if only for just A moment The goodbyes are gone but the echoes remain
To remind you
Oh we could belong to the lucky ones
If we just tried to Promises made where we laid
Our days of believing We will find good
days for us
The sun will shine brightly
Live our life if only for just A moment It's okay to cry for a moment
When promises shatter
But don't waste your tears for too long Because soon it won't matter
Promises made they were lost
But don't bother grieving We will find good
days for us
The sun will shine brightly
Live our life if only for just
A moment
