CD Living in the present future

Give me one good reason
That I should care
Give me one good reason
And I'll be there
Like a thief you've stolen
Like rain on a grave
Like a priest who's spoken
But failed to save Now the air is empty
And the ground the same
Love has gone to be buried
Beside my name Give me one good reason
That I should care
Give me one good reason
And I'll be there Why couldn't you have told me about your liar's kiss
I can't believe you'd leave me
At a time like this And the wind is howling
And it's a dying dream
And my faith is silent
While my doubts scream Give me one good reason
That I should care
Give me one good reason
And I'll be there Give me one good reason
Give me one good reason
Give me one good reason
That I should care Give me one good reason
Give me one good reason
Give me one good reason
That I should care Give me one good reason
Give me one good reason
Give me one good reason
That I should care
