

The girl in red - 1/1

Interprété par Daddy DJ.

You're the girl in red, please take my hand
I wanna share my world with you

It was a day like any other one
I went at home like all the other men
Felt cold and deep inside blue
Put music in my ears so I can break through

Around the corner I came across a friend
Was it fate? He took me to his pad
We climbed the stairs to reach the third floor
We rang the bell...

You opened up the door I felt that I could die for you
In your eyes I saw more than life could ever take me through

CHORUS :

You're the girl in red, please take my hand
I wanna share my world with you
You're my girl in red, my candy maid
The only one I feel so true

You're the girl in red

You've let me in, I took a step inside
You smiled at me, I never felt so shy
Your bro' sent you back in your place
I wanted to do nothing but to slap his face

I left your house, it was about three
I couldn't help dreaming of you with me
How tricky love can be at some times
Don't know your name...

You opened up the door I felt that I could die for you
In your eyes I saw more than life could ever take me through

CHORUS x2

You're the girl in red

You're the girl in red...
