Interprété par B2K.

~Chorus~

Why, why would you make me feel this way
Make me feel like we were never separate
Make me feel like you want to be my girl
But then you only wanna still be friends

"Like best friends" were the words you said to me
Got me wondering to myself. I couldn't sleep
They way we touched. was more than a fantasy
Just knew that what we had was more reality
My wifey is who I thought you'd be
Maybe one day raise a C-H-I-L-D
Broke my heart when you didn't wanna be with me
And all this time I was a fool in L-O-V-E

~Chorus~

Why, why would you make me feel this way
Make me feel like we were never separate
Make me feel like you want to be my girl
But then you only wanna still be friends

Why, why would you make me feel this way
Make me feel like we were never separate
Make me feel like you want to be my girl
But then you only wanna still be friends

Beautiful, baby that was you and I
Now everyday I got to sit and wonder why
The way we kissed, got a feeling deep inside
What I'm hearing girl, it has to be a lie
How can you, just kick me to the side
You never even gave this thing a T-R-Y
Don't understand these things you try to hide
Now all the sudden you been actin f-u-n-n-y
And why

How could you do this to me
You led me to believe you want me
Now I cant change how I feel inside
Girl tell me why

~Chorus~

Why, why would you make me feel this way
Make me feel like we were never separate
Make me feel like you want to be my girl
But then you only wanna still be friends
