

Awake - 1/1

Interprété par Finch.

One devotion to an empty moment
Can't you stay tonight?
Silence broken with words unspoken
Now she's on her knees

No more feeling so useless
Can I beg for one more she said
Taking with arms wide open
Longing for sleep again

The air is clearing
Again, we're breathing
Water turns to wine
The day is tired, the night inside her
Now she is alive

No more feeling so useless
Can I beg for one more she said
Taking with arms wide open
Longing for sleep again

But now, I'm awake
But now, I'm awake
