

The one i love - 1/1

Interprété par The Rasmus.

Haven't slept in a week.
My bed has become my coffin.
Cannot breath, cannot speak.
My head's like a bomb, still waiting.
Take my heart and take my soul.
I don't need them anymore.

The one I love
is striking me down on my knees.
The one I love
Drowning me in my dreams.
The one I love
Over and over again.
Dragging me under.

Hypnoticed by the night.
Silently ricing beside me.
Emptiness, nothingless is burning a hole inside me.
Take my faith and take my pride.
I don't need them anymore.

This bed has become my chapel of stone.
A garden of darkness to where I'm thrown.
So take my life, I don't need it anymore.
