

The one i love - 1/1

Interprété par The Rasmus.

Haven't slept in a week.

My bed has become my coffin.

Cannot breath, cannot speak.

My head's like a bomb, still waiting.

Take my heart and take my soul.

I don't need them anymore.

The one I love is striking me down on my knees. The one I love Drowning me in my dreams. The one I love Over and over again. Dragging me under.

Hypnoticed by the night.
Silently ricing beside me.
Emptiness, nothingless is burning a hole inside me.
Take my faith and take my pride.
I don't need them anymore.

This bed has become my chapel of stone. A garden of darkness to where I'm thrown. So take my life, I don't need it anymore.
