Controlling my feelings for too long
Controlling my feelings for too long
Forcing our darkest souls to unfold
And pushing us into self-destruction
Pushing us into self-destruction

And they make me
Make me dream your dreams
And they make me
Make me scream your screams

Trying to please you for too long
Trying to please you for too long
And visions of greed you wallow
And visions of greed you wallow

Controlling my feelings for too long
Controlling my feelings for too long
And forcing my darkest souls to unfold
And forcing my darkest souls to unfold
And pushing us into self-destruction
And pushing us into self-destruction

And they make me
Make me dream your dreams
And they make me
Make me scream your screams
