Innocence,
I came to you searching for something.
You touch a flame, deep inside and what I feel, I can't hide

Grains of sand, on the shore, I won't search anymore

Now I know, What love is, from both sides I've learnt this

Every heart, has to grow You shown me, Now I know, Now I know

When it gets dark, You shine a light, guiding my spirit. Yes I've wondered, reasons why you've turned my soul out to cry

grains of sand on the shore, I won't search anymore

now I know what love is, from both sides, I've learnt this

Now I Know , just what love is, I feel the power there in every kiss, Now I Know just how it feels in the silence my emotion reveals what love is

Now i know - 2/2

Now I Know what love is, from both sides, I've learnt this,

Now I Know What love is From both sides I've learnt this

Every heart
has to grow
You shown me
Now I Know
Now I Know What love is
From both sides
I've learnt this Every heart
has to grow
You shown me
Now I Know
