

The modern end - 1/1

Interprété par Tristania.

Camera angles

decadence of a dying world

Matchsticks

Long dark corridors

They've got the urge to die young

Deepbluelettering

Carousels and fireworks

Ferris wheels

are spinning in the arc-lite city

Do they know

They have slept for so long

Do they know

The taste of their tongue

Do they know

They are trapped

Let's celebrate the modern end

Let the world begin again

Celebrate the renaissance man
