

Never alone - 1/1

Interprété par Bif Naked.

Lying in your hotel bed you cry
For the years that were wasted and time gone by darling girl can you not see
Your soul is bright
I wish you could know
It's all gonna be all right:

A little determination and a little more pride
A little determination will ease your pain inside.

Let me tell you
That you're never alone
Yeah, yeah

Red wine stains your lips and mind
Clouding memories from which
You always hide
Little girl when will you learn
To shake it off
Try to smile or the pain surely will not stop...

A little determination and a little more pride
A little determination will ease your pain inside.

Let me tell you
That you're never alone
Yeah, yeah

A sadness fuels your contemplation
You must remember that your life's
Only just begun
Know you're in the eye of
The hurricane
A safe place only because there
It doesn't rain:
A little determination and a little more pride
A little determination will ease your pain inside.

Let me tell you
That you're never alone
Yeah, yeah
