

Open your eyes - 1/1

Interprété par 12 Stones.

When I look into your eyes
I see a lot of hate
Pushing me away
You're haunted by a past
A past that brings you down
So you throw it all away
Again

Just try to find a place deep within your soul And don't deny the child living deep inside Open your eyes and find This life's better than you know It's in your hands now Just open up your eyes

Deep inside of your mind You're forced to believe That nothing's gonna change So I take you by the hand And I lead you to a place A place of happiness Like this

Don't throw it away
