

Oblivion - 1/1

Interprété par Alistair Griffin.

Oblivion

Smiles at me softly, I know her for sure,
Scent of her perfume is Christian Dior,
I know it must be wrong,
Cause it surely can't be right,
Gonna go out and gonna get lost tonight... .

Here I go again

[Chorus]

She's out of space and in my mind
Nothing between us now but the chemistry, the suicide
And from this place we both can run
And dance into oblivion

Here I go again

Ask her her name, she says Miss Understood,
But I prefer Crazy. Now buy me a Bud.
We know it must be wrong
'Cause it surely can't be right
Gonna go out and we're gonna get lost tonight

Here I go again

[Chorus]

[Bridge]

Wide boy, big [...]car
Looking for a life but it never gets far
Schools out, pick up a girl
Never get home, gonna see the world

[Bridge]

Morning has broken, it's seven a. m.
Leave by her window, I've done it again
I know it must be wrong
'Cause it surely can't be right
Gonna go out and I'm gonna get lost tonight

Chorus

And dance into oblivion
And dance into oblivion
